PORTLAND, Feb. 27.—Two carloads of bananas arrived from the South this morning in good condition. The fruit will have to be placed on warm storage for several days, in order to fit it for the market.

Among the products that are in active demand are chickens, ducks, veal and hogs. Turkeys and geese are hard to get rid of even at reduced figures. Smelt are still cheap, and, in the language of a fish dealer, "everybody is about sick of smelt."
